OPPORTUNITIES

From June 16-18, 2026, CPHI & PMEC China will shine once again at the Shanghai New International Expo Centre with an impressive exhibition space of 240,000 square meters. The event is expected to attract over 3,600 exhibitors from both domestic and international markets, as well as more than 110,000 professional visitors from around the world. This platform will play a key role in fostering communication and collaboration within the pharmaceutical industry, promoting mutual development, and providing a high-quality trade platform for pharmaceutical companies to connect with global markets.

Concurrent meeting

From June 16-18, 2026, at the exhibition site, CPhI & PMEC China will once again host nearly 100 high-quality conferences and events, helping professionals across the pharmaceutical industry chain to network and build connections, while contributing to the creation of a collaborative ecosystem for pharmaceutical R&D and innovation.
